Leaps & Bounds Rabbit Rescue, Inc. conducts screening processes prior to adoption to make sure we make a good family-bunny match. Leaps & Bounds Rabbit Rescue, Inc. volunteers will discuss the rabbit environment, rabbit handling, and bunny proofing the home.

Our adoption fee is $65.00 for a single rabbit and $100.00 for a bonded pair. This amount only partially defrays our veterinary costs since the spay/neuter fee for a rabbit is itself generally more than this amount. An Adoption Agreement will be required to be signed if you wish to adopt a rabbit from Leaps & Bounds Rabbit Rescue, Inc.

Your age and occupation: _____

Who will be the primary caretaker for the rabbit(s): _____

Please list ALL members of your household and their ages:

Please list ALL current pets:

Do you have any experience with bunnies?

If you do not have any bunny experience, do you need help with information resources?

Have you done any research regarding the care of house rabbits?

Have you ever owned rabbit(s)?:

Do you currently own a rabbit(s)? If so, how many?:

If so, is your rabbit(s) spayed/neutered?

Do any of your rabbit(s) have current health problems? Are you allergic to any type of animal hair?

Where is your rabbit housed and/or where would your new rabbit be housed if you adopted a bunny?

How much exercise time was provided, or would be provided for a new rabbit?

What diet do you feed, or would you feed if you adopt a rabbit?

Do you ever allow your rabbit outdoors? Is the outdoor area secure?

What would you do if your rabbit did something which you considered undesirable, which may include issues such as such as excessive chewing or the need for litter box training?

Are you allergic to hay or rabbit fur? If so, how do you plan to handle any allergy issues?

If you currently rent, does your landlord permit you to have a rabbit?

Do you plan to move in the near future? If so, will you be able to take your rabbit(s) with you to your new home?

Have you ever surrendered an animal to a shelter or given an animal away? If so, what was the reason?

If you are looking for a partner for your current rabbit, please tell us about your pet's personality:

Which bunny(s) on our website or in the store are of interest you?

May we contact your current veterinarian, if you have one, for a reference (please list the name/number)?

If you do not have a veterinarian at present, who would be your veterinarian if you adopt a rabbit (please list name)? Do you know if this is a rabbit-savvy veterinarian, or would you like a referral?
